

Story by Cynthia C. Huijgens • Illustrations by Anne Costa

Polar Bear and the UFO

DIGITAL ADVANCE READER COPY - EXCERPT

INCLUDES: Cover art, a sampling of illustrations and text for advance review purposes only.

THIS IS NOT THE FINAL COPY.

This DARC is not for sale or reproduction and has not passed through the final editing stage. It may contain errors.

Copyright © 2020 Idle Time Press

IDLE TIME PRESS, LLC

Bellaire, Texas

www.idletimepress.com

enquiries@idletimepress.com

None of the material contained herein may be reproduced or stored without written permission of the author and illustrator under International and Pan-America Copyright Conventions.

AUTHOR: Cynthia C. Huijgens

ILLUSTRATOR: Anne Costa

ISBN: 978-1-7329258-5-4 Paperback

ISBN: 978-1-7329258-6-1 eBook/Digital

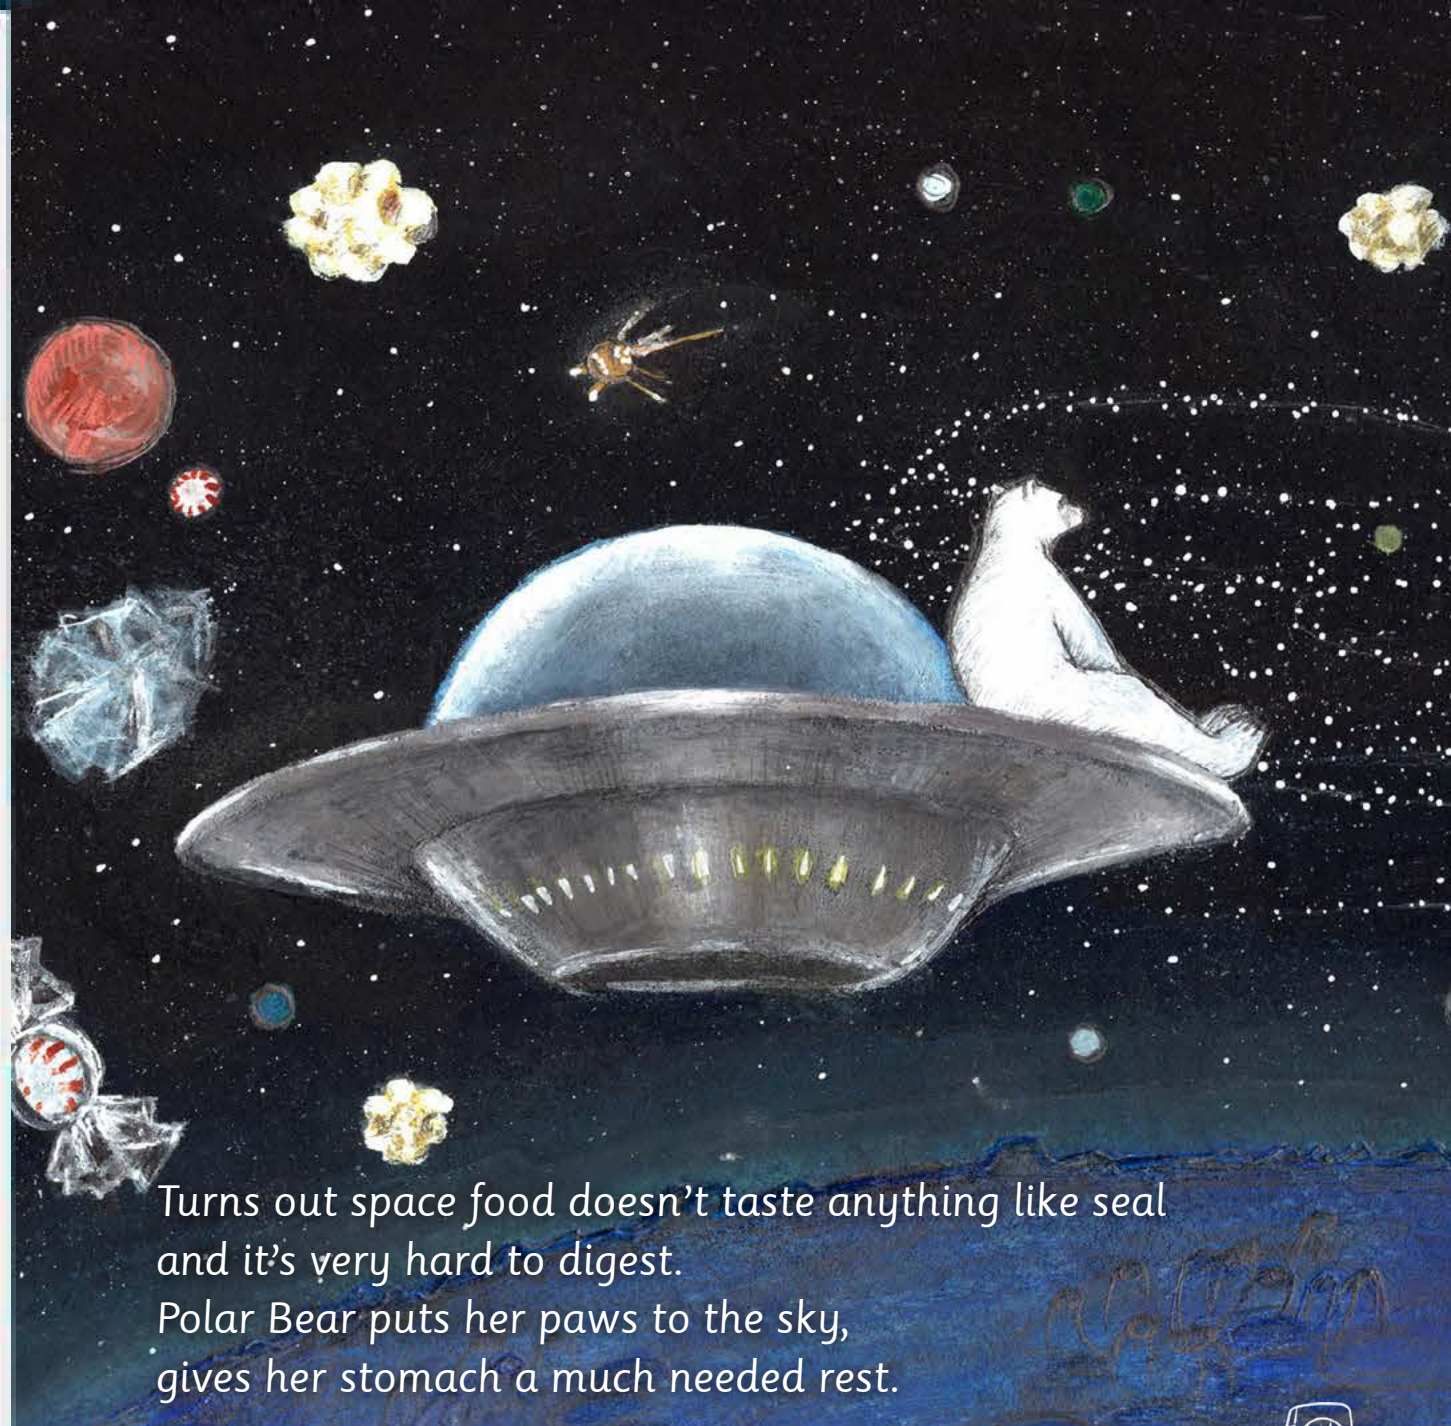

ISBN: 978-1-7329258-7-8 Hardcover

Library of Congress Control Number: 2020905598

Polar Bear and the UFO

Story by Cynthia C. Huijgens • Illustrations by Anne Costa

Turns out space food doesn't taste anything like seal
and it's very hard to digest.
Polar Bear puts her paws to the sky,
gives her stomach a much needed rest.

Stars flow past, each a glistening gem
from a long ago melted glacier.
A million trillion arms of soothing starlight reach across the cosmos to bathe her.

