

THE ABEL BOMBARDED the rain forest for six days and no one talked about the gunnery. The crew ate and slept and worked to the jolt of big bore rifles firing every ten minutes. There was nothing you could say about it. It was Navy policy to shoot people in the woods.