

Paint the world for me,
paint it as you go.

Paint it as you wish,
paint it as you know.

Paint me your mountain.

Paint me your sunrise.

Paint me your ocean.

Paint me your night sky.

What color is happy?

What color is mad?

What color is love?

What color is sad?

Paint the world for me,
paint what it could be.

Paint the world for me,
I'll paint the world for you.

Show me all your colors,
I'll show you all mine, too.
