

Audience

This book is written for believers and non-believers, and those who need or desire to hear from others who have walked with Jesus and have experienced faith testers have a story to tell.

This book is for all who want to see faith in action. The readers of this book will see what a Faith Journey is because a walk with Jesus is one of Faith. You cannot have a testimony until you have gone through a sequence of tests where Jesus brought you through. Each test becomes burdensome to increase one's faith in Christ Jesus. A faith tester is a refining process to get us to depend on God more and comes to know and to accept Jesus as our Lord and Saviour. It is one thing to know about Jesus but another to have a personal relationship with Him.

It is the author's sincere desire through her walk with Jesus while increasing her faith on her journey is that her readers will be able to gain insight into trusting in the Lord and yielding themselves to the Holy Spirit for, He will surely bring you through all obstacles.

This book is designed to take an in-depth look at the author's life from her early childhood to her walk through her life's various stages and events. The author desires that her readers will witness her growth in Christ with each of her faith testers.

The author's Faith Journey began with her accepting Jesus, and the book ends with the developmental areas of her life. This book shows her immense growth in Christ; this is the author's prayer.

On her faith journey, the author drew closer to God, as the song "nearer my God to thee" says. In spite of the author's dark valley days, she could appreciate her mountaintop experience while on this faith journey. It is her desire for her readers to gain the same wisdom and insight. Nevertheless, the author's parents gave her the foundation she would need to withstand life's obstacles she encountered on her faith journey. Her love for her readers and her willingness to share life experiences on her faith journey with Jesus, and her desire to motivate others to accept Christ and begin their faith journey with Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

On this journey, you will never be disappointed or forsaken, neither will you be left alone to fight your battles. Remember who Jesus is; He is our Savior, our warrior, burden barrier, and a heavy load sharer; He is a lawyer in a courtroom and a doctor in a sick room who have never lost a patient. What He has done for others and the author, He will do the same for all who seek Him in sincere prayer.

To that end, I say, accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior and begin your Faith Journey today. You will never walk alone because His Spirit, the Holy Spirit, lives in every believer. In closing, I can say my walk with Jesus has been a journey like no other in that each day with Jesus is sweeter than the day before.

Even in the midst of troubles, I can feel His presence. Sensing the presence of the Lord lets me know that I am not alone, and when my problems get too much for me to bear, He picks me up and carries me the rest of the way. What a mighty God we serve!
