

FOREVER LOVE

You are the reason my spirit grows stronger in the wake of my declining flesh.

As I kneel before you, your kiss heals my soul.

You have decided to contently share your life with me; as we both create lasting memories.

It's like a perfect jewel of how virtue and merit illuminate us.

Kiss for a kiss as we elevate each other's love higher.

When you're not near I feel your presence.

When my eyes are closed, I still see you, because you are a lovely fixation in my heart.

What my flesh cannot do, love can do.

What my brain cannot unscramble, love can decipher.

When I daydream to be closer, love quickly responds and satisfies my desire.

You are always there for my heart.

Your never-denying love fuels my whole being and keeps me spiritually connected to you.

Your scent is upon me and draws me forever back to you.

I love, always loving you!

You love, always loving me!
